

The game is over, up the hackers
Strong defenders, sharp attackers
Our foes are old now, old enough to know
Never let Port Hacking, win two rucks in a row

Port Hacking Road, take me home, to the place I belong
Sylvania Waters, swamps and mangroves
Take me home Port Hacking Road

Many great teams travel to Port hacking
We kick their asses, send them packing
We've got forwards, forwards tough as teak
And backs who can run faster than lightning's golden streak

CHORUS

I look across the field and see my teammates waiting
The captain reminds me I must keep up with the play
Running to the scrum I get a feeling that I should have drunk less yesterday... yesterday

Come all gentleman, let's gather at the waters
Catch up with old friends, watch West Harbour get slaughtered
Watch out Sydney Uni, Randwick and the rest
We're headed for the hill now Port Hackings still the best

CHORUS

EAT. SLEEP. BREATHE.
HACKERS.

BACK TO PORT HACKING DAY
